Consultation Date - December 23, 2019

Background : I was very angry and frustrated throughout the day which is not usual of me and was not matching to my Dashas. Frustration was due to some Tax (8th House) & NRI (12th House) Calculations. In morning I saw an accident(8th house), during lunch time the director of partner company was mentioning about an accident(8th House) of friend who died with helmet on and with no physical injuries to body. My friend took me out for refreshing myself. On way I was telling him that in my last class I got answer to a chart of Funeral/last rites and how much important it is to even take care of last rites. Also told him Its not usual of me to be so irritated, Its not me a Birth Chart will come related to this.

In the evening at 18:31 a Girl contacted me for immediate consultation. By then I was having headache and was not interested for consultation. However as girl seemed very disturbed and I saw something in prashna so decided to talk in case some astrology comes out then Ok else we will talk again.

Girl was upset due to her rejection in job interview yesterday (Dec 23, 2019) as first time rejection in life due to her stupidity (She prepared the wrong topic for interview). Girl is into Buddhism and did not believe in astrology before our talks.

Here Gas Stove is coming from Mars and TV part is coming from Mercury+Sun and exchange with Venus. Retro Jupiter was not my focus here. Here in last rite I have taken into consideration Karaka of Sun and Mercury. Where Sun is father and Mercury is Mama @Prateek Amazing! Another goosebumps giving predictions. I am happy to hear you were able to help her in time and also instilled her faith in this science!

As others above have requested, I would also like for you to explain how you got to certain predictions so I can learn (Sorry, a little bit more work on your end, but a humble request pls to do so). Some of the predictions were mind blowing and I am really looking forward to seeing how you got to it.

Re: gas stove prediction - In the lecture on Saturn, I had asked a question to clarify the elements that Saturn represents and Sir had said that gases are represented by Saturn, electricity by Mars and electro-magnetic waves by Rahu. So maybe Tv problems coz Rahu is in the 12th house aspected by Saturn and Ketu? Re: gas stove - would that be seen by the 4th house? 4th house and lord both are under malefic influence and the karaka i.e Moon is debilitated. Thoughts?

Thank you @Prateek for explaining the predictions. Did the client give the main reason for divorce? It seems like the native is highly critical towards the spouse and also intimacy issues may have led to it. Pls let me know if the client provided the key reason.

Also, in paribharman paddathi lecture, Sir had mentioned if the SAV point difference between 1st and 7th house is greater than 5-6 points, then differences in marriage start cropping up. Here the difference is 7 points.

Glad to know you got goosebumps again ;)

Here my focus is on MARS (Fire) to say Gas STOVE, It will also include Electronic Hot Plate(Mars) or electronic induction STOVE(some relation with Rahu will confirm). 8th house shows Husbands Family place so said accordingly. For TV I have explained in post. Saturn and Rahu aspect will not come for TV. If you want to bring Saturn in it then you have to say Old / black and white TV. Rahu addition here will bring in Non-Branded Chinese TV with high contrast issues or Projector etc. Normally for TV Ketu, Venus, Sun or mercury should make combinations.

One planet is enough to tell item, Other planets will bring flavours to it. We have to fine-tune it based on difference of planets, sign and nakshatra. House will confirm existence or location.

Below are the examples of what you are looking for.

Example 1 - Here Saturn has Prime role D9 confirms religious item

As per her main issue confirmed is High Ego (Point 4). I agree of being critical and intimacy issues with spouse as I could see it too. However took conversation slow specially when I saw thought process of suicide. Will check in detail next time when she is stable.
